General Assembly Standing Committees & Annotated Topic Suggestions

Students must write a resolution for their country that would fall under the heading of one of the following four committees. The topics listed here under each committee are merely SUGGESTIONS. Students are encouraged to come up with their own topics and are not tied to the topics listed here so long as their new, original topic would be logically heard by one of these four committees.

DISARMAMENT AND INTERNATIONAL SECURITY COMMITTEE

- 1) Regulation of Biological and Chemical Weapons: Can the UN regulate what weapons are created and why? Should these weapons be possessed and /or used at all?
- 2) Combating Religious Fundamentalist Pressure on Political Stability: Throughout history religion has been named as the cause of countless wars, armed conflicts, civil unrest etc. As the world has seen, religious fundamentalism can bring terrorism and political instability.
- 3) Measures to Combat Terrorism: Terrorism has long been a major problem for many countries. Recently countries are working together to find solutions to this growing problem.

ECONOMIC AND FINANCIAL COMMITTEE

- 1) Impact of Regional Trading Blocs in Global Trade System: How can the UN promote trade within regions and among the various international trade blocs. Increased traffic through deregulation, lowering of tariffs, lessening of economic embargoes, etc., are ideas to be considered.
- 2) The Rights of Migrant Workers: As migrant workers move from place to place, they are given few rights. What rights exist for migrant workers and how can they be expanded?
- 3) Information Technology: As dependence on technology has expanded, the ability to bring chaos and destruction to essential systems such as air traffic control systems and global computer networks has grown. How can the UN shed light on these problem areas and aid its member states in reducing and/or preventing its effects upon the world's population?

- 4) Recommendations to Improve the Economic Stability of the United Nations: As the debt levels of the United Nations grow, its effectiveness as a peacekeeping force diminishes. The growing debt is partly due to the fact that many member nations, such the United States, are refusing to contribute all of its share of millions of dollars because of internal political issues. How can the UN entice its members to pay their fair shares for the promotion of peace and other UN endeavors?

SOCIAL, HUMANITARIAN AND CULTURAL COMMITTEE

- 1) Protection of Humanitarian Aid Workers: Humanitarian aid workers are often placed in the center of civil strife, war and numerous other dangers. How can the UN increase protection of these vital workers?
- 2) International Regulation of Medicinal Drugs: Whereas rules for testing and use of legal medical drugs vary from country to country, what can the UN do to help regulate the process and distribution of these drugs?
- 3) The Pandemic of Infectious Diseases: Infectious viral diseases are spreading across the globe at an alarming rate. The spread of infectious diseases often results from poor sanitation and education and is often complicated by political strife. Additionally, warring parties who do not permit necessary treatments and aid workers to reach infected areas further complicate this problem. What can the UN do to promote research into viral diseases and how can it help combat the spread of infectious diseases?
- 4) Regulation of Labor by Children and/or Prisoners: Exploitation of this form of labor has been used by numerous governments, countries, and businesses. Regulation by the UN and its pressure upon member states could decrease this problem.

SPECIAL POLITICAL AND DECOLONIZATION COMMITTEE

- 1) Measures to Prevent Environmental Atrocities: Man-made destruction of the environment by governments, industry, and/or individuals. How can the UN prevent these types of actions from occurring and punish those persons responsible once they occur?
- 2) Controlling Organized Crimes Across International Borders: Organized crime is not simple a problem inside country borders, increasingly it is flowing across nation-states.
- 3) Measures to Facilitate Peacemaking Efforts in Situations of Civil War: How can the UN ease the difficulties of peace-making as an intermediate, advisor, and/or enforcer of the peace, etc.
- 4) Protection of Tourists: What role should the UN take in protecting tourists as they travel throughout the world's nation states? Should the UN attempt to aid in the protection of tourists who choose to travel in known problem areas?

Tennessee YMCA Model United Nations
WRITING YOUR RESOLUTION

Definition:

A resolution is a written proposal that deals with the issues being entertained by a UN committee. In your case, your resolution will need to concern topics that would fall within one of the standing committees being heard at our Model United Nations conference. (You should consult your advisor for a listing of these committees.) Your resolution will first be heard in a sub-committee setting, then ranked. Should you rank well enough to move on to committee, you will present your resolution again for consideration by the committee as a possible resolution to be heard in the Plenary Session of the General Assembly.

PLEASE USE THE RESOLUTION TEMPLATE PROVIDED ON OUR WEBSITE TO TYPE YOUR RESOLUTION ACCORDING TO THE FOLLOWING GUIDELINES:

Structure:

Resolutions are divided into three parts:

1. Header
2. Preambulatory Clauses
3. Operative Clauses

Here's a further description of what those sections should include:

▪ HEADER

The header will provide the basic information about your resolution purposes, used mainly for administrative purposes by the Secretaries General. (AKA State YIG Office) The template on our website includes a prompt for all of the items required for your header. They are:

- Sponsor (Your country)
- Delegates (Alphabetical listing of your country members)
- Committee (One of the standing committees)
- Topic (Of your choosing, so long as it fits into one of our committees)

▪ PREAMBULATORY CLAUSES

These clauses introduce the problem at hand, provide necessary background information, and give a general indication of the attitude of the resolution. You should begin each of your preambulatory clauses with an underlined word, as in the sample resolution found in this manual. Please see the list of sample preambulatory clause beginnings in this manual for some ideas.

▪ OPERATIVE CLAUSES

Your operative clauses should be the meat and potatoes of your resolution. They should outline your ideas and specific proposed actions for the resolution. An operative clause should present your solution or solutions to the problem you're addressing. A good operative clause can be one of many things: original, innovative, concerning policy, and economically and politically feasible. Each of your operative clauses should be numbered, and like your preambulatory clauses, should begin with an underlined word or words. Each clause should end with a semi-colon. Some good examples of operative clause beginnings are: Calls for, Strongly encourages, & Establishes.

MORE TIPS FOR WRITING AN EFFECTIVE RESOLUTION

Provided courtesy of the Memphis University School Government Club

GENERAL BACKGROUND:

The United Nations is a community of its member states. It exists for two general purposes:

- 1) To maintain peace and security, and prevent aggression, amongst nations. The Security Council is the only UN body with the authority to pressure or punish countries through military or economic means.
- 2) To improve the quality of life for the people of the world. This is carried out through one of the dozens of UN organizations and committees.

The United Nations is NOT a world government. It cannot violate the “national sovereignty” of a member nation; that is, the right of a nation to control its own internal affairs. Hence, UN.

SPECIFICS ON RESOLUTIONS:

Resolutions are merely suggestions, requests, or statements of “world opinion.” (The exception to this is the “peace and security” function of the Security Council).

The General Assembly and its committees are the bodies in which all member nations discuss world problems and propose solutions. The purposes of GA resolutions are to define and describe problems and propose solutions. More specifically:

- 1) A resolution may propose that specific nations alter their behavior in order to be in line with principles and guidelines stated in one of the dozens of agreements, treaties, declarations, reports, or protocols that most nations have previously signed. Examples range from the UN Declaration of Human Rights to the Kyoto Protocol on Global Warming to the UN Charter itself, and many, many others. Specific punishments may be suggested, if desired, for nations who are in violation.
- 2) A resolution may call on member nations to adopt by their vote a new position or viewpoint regarding a more specific international issue (for instance to “request action to solve” this or “condemn or oppose” that).
- 3) A resolution may seek to develop and gain approval for a specific program or course of action to be carried out by one of the UN organs (Examples of such organs are the UN Commission on Human Rights, the UN Children’s Emergency Fund, The UN Development Programme, the UN Environment Programme, the UN Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization, the UN Disarmament Commission, the UN International Drug Control Programme, and many, many more).

A resolution can create a new organization or committee, but be careful because an organ already exists for practically every matter of world concern. (The UN needs creative solutions and will power, not more bureaucracy).

WHAT DO I NEED TO KNOW TO WRITE A GOOD RESOLUTION?

1) Your country's outlook and priorities. Aside from having a general knowledge of your country's geography, culture, economy, government and recent history, there are UN-based sources, such as the book, A Global Agenda: Issues Before the General Assembly of the UN, published annually by the UN Association of the USA (called UNA-USA).

Another very possible "short-cut" would be to go to the web site your country's Permanent Mission to the UN. Here your country issues position statements, as press releases, regarding the selected issues currently before the General Assembly (<http://www.un.int/brazil> or whatever your country is) .

2) The pressing issues or needs confronting the UN today, and which would concern your nation directly (as a national or regional need) or indirectly (as a concerned "world citizen").

3) What UN declarations, statements, reports, or protocols now exist concerning your issue or topic. If none exist, then you may propose that a new statement of opinion/goals be adopted. But again, make sure none already exist before doing this.

4) What UN organizations or commissions already exist to deal with your issue or topic.

OTHER THINGS I MIGHT WANT TO KNOW:

There are some topics or problems of general concern about which you may not be writing a position paper. It's a good idea to familiarize yourself with a few of these in order to be an effective delegate in general. Those broad, general topics include: improving health and education, fighting crime or terrorism, promoting economic development (agricultural and industrial or high technology), debt relief for poor nations, reforming the UN system or its finance, protecting the environment, eliminating or limiting weapons of mass destruction, improving the lives or protecting the rights of women and children, assisting refugees fleeing economic or military disasters, and so on.

With these problems of general concern, remember that long-term complex problems require long-term detailed solutions. Hence, in many cases, your resolution alone is probably not going to entirely solve those problems. Think of it as the first, even if limited, step toward a later, more comprehensive solution. Or, your resolution may identify a small, but important, problem that exists with a UN program. In this case, you could propose a specific reform which "fine tunes" that UN program.

Remember that unless a problem is totally unique to your nation or region, or a dire emergency exists, it is not a good idea to personalize an assistance effort (for instance, to improve literacy in my country only). With most problems, such as those related to health, education, or economic development, a large number of country's face those problems in common. So, think in terms of general programs and solutions.

Keep in mind the UN financial resources involved with your plan or solution. You will probably be asked this question in debate. This would be decided by the magnitude or severity of the problem. How extensive is the problem? How many nations and people are affected by it? One idea would be to go to the UN budget and see what the UN organization or commission in question spends on comparable problems. Where does your topic fit in that organization's, or the world's, priorities?
